

Privacy Policy

Welcome to the Alternativa Film Project. We are committed to protecting your privacy. This policy describes our privacy practices, the personal information we collect, how we use and share it, as well as your choices and rights regarding this information.

Privacy Policy applies to all visitors of our website <https://alternativa.film/> and participants of the Alternativa Film projects and Awards (“you”) The website and the Awards are provided and controlled by the inDrive group of companies (“we” or “us”).

We comply with local laws in relation to all practices described in this policy. If there is an inconsistency between this policy and the local law, we will comply with the local law to the extent of the inconsistency.

What information we collect

Application and contact information:

Name, email address, contact information, country, information about your submitted film, work experience, occupation, professional qualities, personal background, motivation letter, other information in your CV, photo and video image; for winners also ID information;

Information in correspondence: Information you send to us, which may include chat messages, emails, phone calls;

Cookies, analytics, and third-party technologies. We collect information through the use of cookies, pixels, tags, and other similar tracking technologies.

How we use your information

We use your information for the following purposes:

- to review and administrate your application;
- to respond to your inquiries;
- to improve our services;
- to hold the Awards and other events within Alternativa Film Project;
- to conduct the background check for winners;
- to organize trips for participation in the Awards ceremony;
- to provide you with newsletters, surveys, promotions, and notices on changes and upgrades about the Alternativa Film Project, including Awards;
- to promote Alternativa Film Project and inDrive.

How we share your information

With other users, with the Selection Committee and the International Jury: We may share your personal information with external members of the Selection Committee and the International Jury to review your application. We provide your profile information to other visitors of our website, during the forming of the shortlist, and for publishing the result of the Awards as well as with the guests of the Awards ceremony and other events within Alternativa Film Project.

Within our corporate group: We may disclose personal Information to our corporate subsidiaries or other entities affiliated with inDrive.

For marketing: We may cooperate with third-party marketing platforms and service providers to assist us and perform certain marketing services for us. We may also disclose personal information to share the result of the Awards on our social media pages.

For legal reasons: We may disclose your personal information when it is necessary to comply with legal requirements or to protect the rights.

Your rights and choices

Accessing, amending or deleting your data.

You may access, amend or delete your personal information that we hold by contacting us at the email indicated at the end of this policy.

Managing cookies. You can delete cookies and modify your cookie settings on your browser. You may need to separately manage cookies for each type of browser or device.

Unsubscribing from marketing emails. You can opt-out of marketing emails messages by using the “unsubscribe” link or mechanism noted in such emails.

Asking us questions or raising a complaint.

We will be happy to answer any questions you may have about this policy or about how we treat your information. We will respond to your request consistent with applicable law and subject to proper verification of your account and identity. If you wish to raise a concern about our use of your information, you have the right to complain to your local supervisory authority.

How we store your information

We retain your information for as long as necessary to achieve the purposes set out in this policy. We may also need to retain some of your information for a longer period to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

How we protect your information

We take reasonable and appropriate technical, administrative, and physical security measures, appropriate to the nature of the personal information at issue, designed to protect your personal information from loss, theft, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction.

Despite these measures, the Internet is not a fully secure environment and we cannot guarantee that your personal information won't be intercepted or improperly accessed.

Cross border data transfers

To support our global operations, we share your information with members of our corporate group and other entities outside of your country of residence as described in the “How we share your information” section.

We transfer your personal information in accordance with law, and take steps to ensure that your information is appropriately protected.

Third-party collections

The Alternativa Film Project website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for those websites, and we recommend that you review their policies. Please contact those websites directly if you have any questions about their privacy practices.

Contact

Questions, comments and requests regarding this policy should be addressed to info@alternativa.film.